The questions listed below are part of our interview process to help provide a safe and secure environment for our children and youth. All information will be held in strict confidence. Answering yes to any of these questions may not necessarily preclude your involvement in Children's/Youth Ministries. Should you answer yes to any of the following questions, please explain on a separate sheet of paper. Thank you for your understanding.

Have you had any painful experiences in your life that have better equipped you or may hinder you from a productive ministry with children/youth? Yes No

If yes, would you like to meet with a pastor regarding this circumstance? Yes No

Have you ever been hospitalized or treated for alcohol or substance abuse? Yes No

Have you ever been convicted of, or pled guilty or no contest to a crime other than a minor traffic violation, or are you now under charges for any criminal offense? A criminal conviction may not necessarily disqualify you from consideration for involvement. Yes No

Is there anything in your lifestyle or background that would call into question your suitability to work with children/youth? Yes No

Applicant's Statement

The information contained in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I authorize any references, churches or other organizations listed in this application to give you any information they may have regarding my character and fitness for working with children, and I release all such references from liability for any damage that may result for furnishing such evaluations to Heritage Christian Fellowship.

Heritage Christian Fellowship Volunteer's Covenant

Having committed to serving in the Children's/Youth Ministries and the habits essential for spiritual maturity, I commit to:

1. Prepare for ministry by maintaining my personal relationship with Christ.
2. Support the teaching ministry by praying for the church, other teachers, and specifically the children/youth in my class.
3. Cooperate with other ministries and place the greater good of the whole body over the needs of my ministry.
4. Personal growth and education by participating in training opportunities.

Should my application be accepted, I agree to follow the policies of Heritage Christian Fellowship and to refrain from unbiblical conduct in the performance of my services on behalf of the church.
